Wednesday 29th April 2026, Addis Ababa Ethiopia: The Director of the Public Sector Reform Unit (PSRU) Mr. Sulaiman Phoray-Musa, has called for bold and coordinated reforms across Africa to accelerate development outcomes.

Representing the Minister of Public Administration and Political Affairs, Hon. Amara Kallon, Mr. Musa, the Director delivered a strong message during a high-level panel at the 12th Session of the Africa Regional Forum on Sustainable Development in Addis Ababa, alongside a dialogue on partnerships for the 2030 Agenda and the African Union's Agenda 2063.

The Director highlighted the urgent need for African countries to better align national development plans, budgets, and financial frameworks with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the Ten-Year Implementation Plan of Agenda 2063.

He stressed that achieving meaningful progress requires moving beyond commitments to disciplined to system-wide reforms that anchors national development processes.

Key priorities he outlined included integrating planning and budgeting systems, strengthening public financial management, reforming public institutions and services, modernizing data and monitoring systems, and mobilizing sustainable financing at scale, all underpinned by strong political leadership and coordination.

He concluded by emphasizing that the reforms required across the continent must be transformational rather than incremental. Aligning plans, budgets, institutions, and data systems with clarity and purpose will enable African countries not only to meet these ambitious agendas but also to redefine global standards
